

Meeting Room Policy

The library meeting room was designed to be open to the public only during regular library hours. It is not self-contained and cannot be closed off from the rest of the library. It is not intended as a rental space for the general public, since there are other venues in the community for that purpose.

1. Purpose: The primary purpose of the library meeting room is to provide space for programs sponsored by the library for cultural, educational, informational, or civic purposes.
2. Lost/Stolen items: The library does not assume any responsibility for the security of personal items.
3. Food and Drink Rules:
 - No smoking is allowed in the library building or within 8 feet of any entrance.
 - Alcoholic beverages are prohibited on NWCPL property (exception for library sponsored events where special license has been obtained).
 - All spills or accidents (including vomit) must be immediately cleaned up in accordance with standard guidelines concerning bodily fluids as appropriate.
4. Marketing/Disclaimers: The fact that the library is offering a program at NWCPL does not in any way constitute an endorsement of the presenter's policies or beliefs.
5. Hold Harmless: Presenters and attendees of programs in the meeting room agree to indemnify and hold harmless the North Webster Community Public Library, and its employees, officers, agents, and representatives, from any and all suits, actions, claims, or demands of any nature arising out of or brought on account of any injuries or damages sustained by any person by a consequence or result of the use of NWCPL property, its furnishings, or its equipment.
6. The library reserves the right to preempt or cancel any scheduled meeting.
